GRAND RE-OPENING NIGHT!

[illegible]

The Canterbury Hall has now one of the largest and most comfortable auditoriums in the city. Amused at the country, the proprietors have spared neither pains nor expense to make the GREAT MUSIC HALL OF THE WORLD.

It has an entirely new Auditorium, new Proscenium, a large new balcony, with a new Orchestra Chaise, every seat, for male and elegant, cannot be surpassed. Every seat in the house has been arranged so that the audience can see the stage and the orchestra. The hall has been fitted up with new scenery, new curtains and appointments, by some of the best artists in the country. There are four boxes, and the audience that would be to the comfort of the patrons.

The order of entertainment offered is second to none. In the evening, in the grand hall, the following array of talent is respectfully invited to the intelligent, amusement-loving community.
